

Personal Information

There will be no disclosure of personal information "without consent", except as may be required or permitted by law, as necessary for the safety of the individual or others or in the case of emergency.

Photos taken during Sail Training may be used for promotional purposes of the Sail Training program.